

Best Bets

Carroll County Times, Friday, April 16, 2004

Spring Celebration

The Children's Chorus of Carroll County, in concert with the Westminster Ringers, presents "Spring Celebration" at 7 p.m. Saturday in Baker Memorial Chapel on the campus of McDaniel College at 2 College Hill in Westminster.

The three groups of the chorus, Le Petites Voix, Il Choro Della Bella and Cantare Bel Canto, will each perform segments of the program under the direction of Diane Jones and Holly Kennedy.

Repertoire includes the Hebrew folk song "Hashivenu," John Rutter's "The Heavenly Aeroplane," Don Besig's "Reflections of a Lad at Sea" and Marilyn Broughton's "Nursery Rhyme Nonsense."

All three groups will combine to perform with the Westminster Ringers on two selections: "Joy in the Morning" by Natalie Sleeth and "Praise the Lord Who Reigns Above" by Jody Lindh.

Admission to the concert is free. A freewill offering will be accepted during the concert. For more information, call Glenn Patterson at -----.